EASTER MESSAGE FROM BISHOP JOHN NOONAN

My Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Throughout this Lenten season, we have been seeking the place where He lay. We have offered our sacrifice with His sacrifice on the Cross that God's goodness might be known throughout the land. We run to the tomb joyously to see the place where He lay and we believe.

This belief is not held as a treasure only on Easter Sunday but as a gift of life everlasting. The angel at the tomb heralds us to think of what is above, not of what is on earth.

Come and see the place where He lay. Like Mary, Peter and John, we have witnessed the fulfillment of God's promise to us through the ages in the journey to the tomb.

Alleluia, He is risen! He is risen indeed.
