We need YOU!! Please call and sign-up!

We are now scheduling for the 4:30 p.m. Mass. Each week a family, or an individual, has spent a week with the consecrated chalice placed in a prominent location in the home, where the family gathers for prayer for vocations, especially to the religious life, but also for us each to hear the calling of our Lord in each of our lives. To facilitate the 4:30 p.m. rotation, we are in need of a coordinator to be in charge of sign-ups and placements. Please call Sharon Klein to sign up and or discuss this ministry. Call 321-266-8223 or email sharsharklein@gmail.com

OUR CALL TO THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY

We are praying with our belief in Mary as the mother of Jesus and the mother of God. We are praying with our awareness of how blessed is fidelity when it is lived within the human experiences of letting go to clarity and quick results.

This is a major feast of the Catholic Church. There are the questions of course about whether she died first. If she were sinless and death is a result of sin, then logic would demand that she was and is living in heaven, where ever that is.

We pray with more than questions, but our devotion to Jesus requires our devotion to his close friends of whom his mother would be prime. So what we are praying with this week is about being authentically Catholic.

The Assumption is found no where at all in Holy Scripture, but Catholics hold fast to God's guiding revelation through time and the human experiences of memory. We do believe in Scripture of course, but believe also that God used more than the written word to assist us in our search for peaceful living.

We can pray with logic, imagination, devotion and a sense that our faith extends from heaven through time and into our futures with the grace to live what we believe. We are encouraged by this one woman's trust in what was not written, but spoken with words based on her communal traditions; God calls humans into mystery and remains faithful in time.

We do not adore her, but admire her.

THANK YOU FROM DAILY BREAD

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for your recent money gift received on 7/18/2017. Your donation will help Daily Bread remain one of the key social service organizations for the poor, hungry and homeless in our community.

Daily Bread provides services that go far beyond food. Access to showers, clean clothing, a mail stop, assistance in obtaining Florida identification, employment readiness, counseling, housing assistance, and health screenings; all aimed at encouraging self-sufficiency are just some of the services provided.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, Staff and the Clients we appreciate you choosing to support Daily Bread.

Sincerely,

Peggy Sowders, Acting, Executive Director
